

A Report on One day workshop on Open Access Publishing

Chhatrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur , GSV Central Library & Research & Development Cell, organized One day workshop on Open Access Publishing on 9 June 2025 at University Kanpur. The resource person was Dr Mohit Garg from Indian Institute of Technology Delhi. Dr Ashish K Srivastava, Librarian, Dr Namita Tiwari, Dean Research & Development, Dr. Ravi Shukla, Assistant Librarian joined in welcoming the guest and audience.

The workshop was coordinated and convened by Dr Shweta Pandey, Deputy Librarian and it was attended in a good number of research scholars and faculty members from various subjects' domains.

Dr. Mohit Garg offered in-depth training on the core principles and practical aspects of open-access publishing, including UNESCO's Values and Principles of Open Science. He acquaints participants with different open-access models (gold, green, diamond, and hybrid), open public licensing (Creative Commons), and resources such as Open Policy Finders and the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ). He also facilitates effective use of open publishing platforms like OJS/Janeway, covering installation, journal setup, submission management, peer review, and content publication and provide insights into ORCID and its role in enhancing research visibility.

As a gesture of gratitude and appreciation, the Fine Arts Department presented a painting to the resource person. The session was thoughtfully designed to keep the audience engaged throughout, ensuring active participation till the end of the session. Attendees took actively part in the interactive online puzzle games, and the winners were awarded with the prizes. The event concluded with a memorable group photograph.
