

Saraswati Puja Program at GSV Library

On 23rd January 2026, Basant Panchami (Saraswati Puja) was organized by the GSV Central librray at Chhatrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur. The GSV Central Library warmly celebrated Saraswati Puja with great devotion and enthusiasm. The event witnessed active participation from students, faculty members, library staff, and other members of the academic community.

The serene atmosphere was filled with prayers and cultural vibrancy as everyone gathered to seek the blessings of Goddess Saraswati, the divine embodiment of knowledge, wisdom, and learning. The puja commenced with traditional rituals, followed by offerings and collective chanting that created an atmosphere of spiritual harmony. Students and faculty members came together to contribute to the arrangements, decorating the library premises beautifully with flowers and rangoli. After the puja, prasad was distributed within the library premises among all participants. The programme concluded successfully and contributed to strengthening the academic and cultural environment of the university.

