Educational Visit to Ganesh Shankar Vidyarthi Central Library, CSJMU, Kanpur

Theme: Promoting Reading Habits and Library Awareness
Date: 6 August 2026

Visiting Institution: Maharana Pratap International School, Keshavpuram, Kalyanpur,Kanpur

Students and Librarian from Maharana Pratap International School, Keshavpuram, Kalyanpur, visited the Ganesh Shankar Vidyarthi Central Library (GSVCL) at Chhatrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University (CSJMU), Kanpur, on 6 August 2026 to explore its resources, understand modern library services, and develop awareness of the importance of reading and lifelong learning.

During the visit, Prof. (Dr.) Ashish Kumar Srivastava, University Librarian, introduced the students to the library's facilities, resources, and services. Through an interactive session, he addressed their queries and encouraged them to cultivate regular reading habits and incorporate library use into their academic and personal development.

Dr. Shweta Pandey, Deputy Librarian, and Dr. Ravi Shukla, Assistant Librarian, sensitized the students to the role of emerging technologies and digital innovations in transforming teaching, learning, and research. They explained how modern libraries are adopting advanced technologies, state-of-the-art infrastructure, and innovative service delivery models to provide efficient, accessible, and user-oriented services.

The visit provided students with valuable insights into the role of libraries in education, research, and knowledge creation. It also enhanced their awareness of the effective use of library resources and the importance of reading in intellectual development.

As a gesture of appreciation, the school presented a memento to Prof. (Dr.) Ashish Kumar Srivastava in recognition of his informative and inspiring interaction with the students.

The visit was a meaningful initiative towards strengthening students' engagement with libraries, promoting reading habits, and nurturing a lifelong interest in learning and knowledge exploration.

Glimpses of the Educational Visit

Maharana Pratap International School, Keshavpuram, Kalyanpur, Kanpur

