Ques Define the "Cacophony" and "Euphony" with two fine examples.

Ans

Cacophony and Euphony are the main literary device. It uses in the Drama, Play and Noble, Any type of literary work.

1) Cacophony :-

Cacophony means the "bad sound". In literature, Cacophony is a literary device,

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

which means the bad sound and the harsh sound.

"The sound, which we don't like is called Cacophony."

⇒ Use of Cacophony in English literature

Sometimes, we talk about if Cacophony is a bad sound so why we used cacophony in our work?

The writer uses the Cacophony, because some time we want that the reader and the audience feel some fear and Anger. So that we use Cacophony in our literary work. Without Cacophony the writer could not feel the fear himself and could not frightened the audience with his work and some horror movie and some heavy word are looking for it without using Cacophony words.

⇒ Example :-

1) 'Dependence' in that word 'D' is so heavy and for hearing it is not looking so good. It is Cacophony sound.

2) 'Castle' in that word 'C' is not sound good. it is also the fine example of cacophony.

2) Euphony → Euphony means the pleasant sound.

In literature that sound we like, and after hearing the we should be happy and our heart is more calm, that sound is 'Euphony'.

"The sound, which is called the pleasant sound and person and audience will be happy after hearing that word is called 'Euphony'."

Euphony is also a literary device. The writers use a lot of euphony words in their work.

⇒ Use of Euphony in English Literature!

For liking the audience, the writers used the euphony word in his work. Hearing and reading these words, the interest were more proceed in the heart of audience. These type of euphony word have an important place in drama.

The writer's heart is also happy.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

When we used euphony sound.
And the main things, for writing the Euphony word, the writer should also
-happy.
