INTERACTIVE SESSION BETWEEN VICE-CHANCELLOR AND STUDENTS.

An interactive session was held at the Centre of Academics between students and the Vice-chancellor of Chhatrapati Shahuji Maharaj University Prof. Vinay Kumar Pathak. The main agenda of this session was understanding and resolving students' problems in the post-pandemic era. At this meeting student representatives of various departments explained and suggested new reforms and betterment that would enable the students to excel in their academic performances. Furthermore, this interactive session was also intended to create better communication among the students and the administration.

The main issues that were brought forward by the student representatives were appointments of Faculties, infrastructural revamping like sanitation, classes, Co-Circular activities zone, basic amenities in Hostels and field studies oriented updation of the syllabus. Besides these issues, the student also urged the Vice-chancellor to ease the formal processes of Scholarships and other administrative processes and establishing placement cells in all departments

The Vice-chancellor Prof. Vinay Kumar Pathak attentively responded to all these issues and ordered all corresponding authorities to resolve these issues on an urgent basis. Furthermore, he also assured the students that all necessary action will be taken for their welfare. He also insisted that the student establish direct contact with him regarding any issues adding that he would hold this interactive session on a regular basis.
