

Lt Colonel (Dr) Anjani Kumar Mishra (Retd.) has served the nation as a commissioned officer in Indian Army for 25 years. The officer joined the Uttar Pradesh Centralised service as Registrar in the year 2019 after taking pre mature retirement. The officer has been trained in the most prestigious training institutions of the Indian Army during military service and is graduate of Army War College, Mhow, Defence Services Staff College, Wellington, Nilgiris, India, and Madras University. The officer has served across all terrain and climatic conditions in the country and has also served in the United Nations in North Africa as Chief Operations Officer in a border monitoring and verification mission in a Peacekeeping Force. The officer is post graduate in Defence and Strategic studies and Ph.D, in addition to various military qualifications. The officer has been Controller of Examination of Lucknow University and Registrar of Dr Bhim Rao Ambedkar University, Agra before joining the current assignment of Controller of Examination of Chatrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur.