

REDUCE INEQUALITY WITHIN AND AMONG COUNTRIES

Relevance

The university recognizes the importance of providing academic and practical knowledge to children from underprivileged communities, ensuring equal access to education and opportunities. Moreover, CSJM University fosters a culture of respect among students for all social and economic classes, promoting inclusivity and equal opportunity for all groups and communities globally.

Current Interventions

- ❖ CSJMU is dedicated to eliminating discrimination across its campus by ensuring that diversity is represented and that every individual has a voice in the decision-making process.
- ❖ Involvement of students in various community outreach activities under NSS. Hobby Club council--Aatmoday encourage the holistic development of the students by coordinating and promoting a variety of educational, recreational, social, cultural and entertainment programs with one of the objectives is to bring people together

Policy/Guidelines of the Institute

CSJM provides a supportive, inclusive, and safe working and learning environment for individuals from financially and socially disadvantaged backgrounds, rural and regional areas, people with special needs, women in the workplace, individuals of diverse genders and sexualities, and those from diverse cultural and faith communities.

Future Plans

- ❖ Increase international collaboration and research opportunities.
- ❖ Organization of International conferences, symposium and workshop.
- ❖ Insitiate student exchange programs from national and international institutions.