

Title of Vocational Programme : News Reporting and Editing

Faculty: Arts

Department: Political Science

Broad Area : Journalism & Mass Communication

Course Learning Outcomes: A Career in Journalism is a highly lucrative option for candidates as it offers comparative pay and career progression options. The course in Journalism & Mass Communication allows the candidates to work in the Media and Entertainment Industry. Under the proposed certificate course, we aspire to prepare a student with a holistic understanding of technical aspects of media focusing on News Reporting and editing. We aim to develop quality learning materials and prepare students equipped with technical knowledge, skills and critical thinking.

Credits: 3

Programme: Vocational

Max. Marks: 100

Min. Passing Marks: 33

Department Name:

Course Code:

Duration of Programme: 4 SEMESTER

	Unit	Topics
SEM 1	I (Theory)	Fundamentals of Journalism & Principles of Communication
	II (Practical)	Textual Project Work based on Case Studies
SEM 2	Unit	Topics
	I (Theory)	Art & Technique of News Reporting
	II (Practical)	Field Project Work
SEM 3	Unit	Topics
	I (Theory)	Art & Technique of Creative Writing and Editing
	II (Practical)	Project Work and Mock Interviews
SEM 4	Unit	Topics
	I (Theory)	New Techniques of Broadcast & Web Journalism
	II (Practical)	Project Work & Actual Interface with Media agencies and News Houses (Print and Electronic)

[Handwritten signatures and marks in blue ink]

Suggested Readings:

List Attached

Suggested Continuous Evaluation Methods:

- (i) Written Assignments/Term Papers
- (ii) Quizzes
- (iii) Objective type Term Exams

Eligibility (Subject specific):

1. The course will be open to all students after their successful completion of the 10+2 level of education from a recognized educational Board, with a minimum aggregate score of 50% in any discipline.
2. The learners must have the knowledge of English and Hindi language and should be able to express themselves in simple correct English and Hindi
3. The learners should possess working knowledge of computers – MS Office and other simple softwares and should have internet access.

S uggested equivalent online courses: NIL